EDITORIAL

After the publication of FURY OF THE SUB-TERRAINS No. 1, someone recently asked me what this fanzine is all about. Obviously they did not bother to read the first number to try and gather some kind of idea or conclusion - Good for them, I applause their effective use of time. Why bother with anything anymore? What this fanzine is about has little to no importance whatsoever. However, it just might be that someone may find something of interest in here, or nothing at all. And that's fine by me. Nevertheless, I do admit the inclination of this fanzine to be a glimpse inside this fractured skull...

THERE ARN'T ENOUGH MAGAZINES...

EXCERPT

All magazines are slaves to a way of thinking, and as a result they despise thought. They all have the serious defect of being edited by several people. Thus they imagine that they are reflecting a state of opinion, when they are really only a grab bag. For there is no such thing as a state of opinion, there are various opinions which are more or less worthy of being expressed. But humanity is incurable. No one will ever prevent people from being sure of their own thought and suspicious of someone else's; if someone who has a valid point of view wants to give it an audience, they have no choice but to start a magazine....

There are no free magazines; all magazines have what amounts to a creed. Thus we are choosing the only means of being ourselves and of being ourselves totally.

This magazine will therefore be a personal magazine, interesting in that it will be the creation of a single individual, but we will welcome as guests those artists and writers whose work seems to accord with our state of mind, to illustrate it, or to relate to it in some way.

ROTATING SOUNDS:

Herejia - Insurreccion (1990)

ESOS MALDITOS PUNKS from Austin, TX has recently reissued this classic piece of Mexican Punk history 30 years after its release. Definitely snag a copy of this HEREJIA record from the label. One of my favorite parts of this reissue is that it comes with a facsimile of the original lyric zine. Don't miss out if you know whats good...

EXTREMA CORDIALIDAD HOMICIDA were a Spanish band from Valencia, 1983 - 1985.

If you like noisy gothic postpunk that has an edge to it, I recommend that you seek out this demo from 1983.

MORBID PATAFISICA

"...as soon as I see the word "knowledge" I know that what's coming is going to be nonsense. If you still believe that anything whatsoever can be known, that is not pataphysics. This is just naivety."

"The universe supplementary to this one is not at all a world of mysticism. If Jarry sees it (pataphysics) at times as a world of dreamers & the dead, that is because death is a mystification -the finest of macabre jokes- and dreams are deranged stories. So essentially there is no difference because there is no essence because there is no difference."

- J. TORMA

FERNANDO ARRABAL

Founder of the Panic Movement & member of the College of Pataphysics

"I'm an anarchist and an anarchist of anarchism. I'm a member of an anarchist party where I am its sole official, spokesperson, and militant; and I am always close to kicking myself out."

Arrabal on the day of his proceeding for crimes against the state

Arrabal was once invited by the congressional anarchists of Spain to speak:

"I, who am an anarchist and a total descendent of anarchism, ask you one thing: Now that the Francoist dictatorship has ended, I ask you to beg forgiveness for the churches that we burned during the war!"

FROM OUR READERS

"Yo this zine is cool but you should review contemporary records"

"I never understood why punks love coke.
That's like the least punk drug you could do. Coke's for yuppies and rockstars. Do some whipits, huff some glue, take some speed for fucks sake..."

"Everybody wants to claim to be radical nowdays... Buncha flirts. I once saw that a therapist had written a "choose your own destiny" book against capitalism, and then charged $30 per copy. Haha! fucking posers."

*

"Why do punks on the web love to sport the same fucking bands? The bands are cool but how much Discharge, Void, GISM, Disclose, Anti-Cimex shit do I need to see?"

A CONVERSATION WITH

SOLDIER'S DISEASE

WHY DON'T YOU CONSIDER SOLDIER'S DISEASE TO BE A BAND?

A: Because you can't be a real band nowadays due to covid

IF THE PANDEMIC WASN'T HAPPENING, DO YOU THINK YOU WOULD BE A "REAL" BAND?

C: Maybe, I don't know.

A: Yeah, I don't know. Probably not tho, because we'd be focusing on our other bands. The only reason we're a thing is because of the pandemic and because I had the band name and thought that I may as well do something with it.

WHAT DOES SOLDIER'S DISEASE MEAN?

A: Its kind of fucked but its an old name for morphine addiction. I heard it in one of my biopsychology courses when I was at the uni and thought that it'd be a sick band name.

C: Yeah, isn't it when soldiers would get addicted to morphine after treatments?

A: Thats exactly it. The way I see it, its just another name for another way to escape this fucked up reality.

SO IF THE PLAN WAS TO JUST RELEASE THOSE SONGS, WHY COME BACK TO DO A SECOND TAPE?

A: We weren't too hyped on how the first recordings came out.

C: Yeah and we thought that if we were going to rerecord them, we may as well add a couple new songs to save ourselves from being redudant.

ANY FUTURE PLANS?

A: Besides your pressing of the record? No, not really to be honest. Solger's Disease is dead. The only thing I have in mind is making a promo video for the 7" but thats about it.
